Dear Imam Azhar,

I trust this letter finds you well. It was my pleasure to meet you last month for our Better Understanding for a Better World Conference Interfaith Day (2018 BUBW-Orlando).

On behalf of Imam Bashar, Kim and myself, thank you, your community and AlBir Islamic Association for your hospitality and warmth as you welcomed our group of BUBW participants. We are blessed that you were there for Jumu'ah and were willing to spend the afternoon answering questions which gave the opportunity for the international students to gain a better understanding of Islam. While some of these students are Muslim, there are also many whose very first experience in a mosque was that day. We are very pleased that this first time was so positive, open and enlightening. I was delighted to be introduced to many smiling faces, as I was greeted with sincere warmth and open arms.

We hope to continue this cooperation with Al Bir as even now we begin preparation for next year's BUBW conference. In the meantime, please do stay in touch. Imam Bashar, Kim and I value your thoughts and prayers and enjoy hearing from you. We all have the same goal of spreading the message of peace and harmony, and we do this best when we work together. We appreciate such faithful partners we have found in you and the community of AlBir. Thank you so much.

May you only know blessings.

Warmly,

Amanda Hauck
BUBW Conference Coordinator
